PRESIDENT WILSON'S NOTE APPROVED

CHICAGO FIRM SENDS NOTICE BEFORE NOTE IS MAILED

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—On December 11, nine days before President Wilson issued his peace note, Thomson & McKinnon, Chicago stock brokers, mailed to their customers throughout the country a printed circular reviewing conditions in the warring countries of Europe and suggesting that a move for peace might be expected at any time.

R. W. McKinnon said the circular expressed the opinion of the firm on market conditions and was not based on any advance information that President Wilson was about to issue a peace note.

"The circular was issued in the regular course of business and was mailed to all our customers," said McKinnon. "It was based on our own judgment of the situation in Europe and not on any information of what President Wilson or any one else might do. Since we issued that circular we have been advising our clients to get away from the long side of the market."

McKinnon expressed the opinion that Congressman Wood had placed a wrong construction on messages which the firm had sent to its correspondents in the regular course of business.

OPINION DENIES SENDING MESSAGE.

He denied ever having sent a message to Hartley, a correspondent of the firm at Oshkosh, Wis., based on advance information that President Wilson contemplated the issuance of a peace note.

The printed circular issued by the firm December 11 read in part as follows:

"Under such conditions coupled with sentiment throughout the world in favor of peace would it be surprising if a suggestion from an authoritative source should meet with a favorable response from all the warring powers?"

"We cannot too strongly recommend to our friends the advisability of taking advantage of the present comparative steadiness and strength of the market to liquidate all stocks that are

MEXICAN FEDERALS DEFEAT BANDITS

By Associated Press.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 5.—De facto Mexican government troops under Gen. Francisco Murguia, decisively defeated a revolutionary force under personal command of Francisco Villa near Jimenez yesterday, according to Eduardo Bravo, Carranza consul, who announced he had received the news in a message from Chihuahua City late today.

Many of Villa's followers were killed and taken prisoner, the message said. Jimenez is 150 miles south of Chihuahua City. Many implements of war were captured by General Murguia's column, the dispatch added. Reports of fighting south of Chihuahua City were received at El Paso by government agents today, but the exact location of the engagements could not be ascertained.

Villa sources claimed fighting was in progress today at Bachimba Pass, Horcasitas and Ortiz between Chihuahua City and Santa Rosalia, but these reports were contradicted by the de facto government official dispatches.

Hold Cotton Heflin Says

By Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 5.—An agreement between American and foreign spinners to divide the southern territory was charged by Representative Heflin in a speech on the cotton situation in the house today.

Heflin painted a gloomy picture of boll weevil conditions and said the 1916 crop would show the supply to be 3,500,000 bales short of the demand. He urged southern producers, merchants and bankers to stand together and hold the remainder of this year's crop for higher prices.

Lawson Ready to Reveal Leak; Congress Anxious

Thomas W. Lawson, financier who made millions when the news concerning President Wilson's peace note "leaked," is in Washington and says he is ready to set the world agast with revelations concerning similar "leaks" of the past twenty years. Representative Woods of Indiana has introduced a resolution calling for an investigation. Representative Henry is chairman of the house rules committee, and it is to him that Lawson has addressed several letters, in which startling accusations against congressmen have been made.

POPE MAY KNOW PEACE PROPOSALS

TERMS SPOKEN OF BY HUNGARIAN PREMIER BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN GIVEN HIM.

By Associated Press.

London, Jan. 5.—The peace terms of the Teutonic allies, which Count Julius Andrássy, former Hungarian premier, is reported to have said the entente could learn from President Wilson, are believed in diplomatic quarters to consist of generalizations, which Germany and Austria-Hungary communicated to the pope and presumably to the American authorities.

The pope expressed to the German and Austro-Hungarian emperors his hopes that their terms would be "moderate and acceptable."

The emperors responded that it was their purpose to formulate "moderate" terms. Reports that the reply of the entente to President Wilson's peace note would contain a statement of terms are now known to refer to a similar general statement of conditions which, while somewhat more specific than the generalizations in the speech of Premier Lloyd George and in the entente's reply to Germany, does not mention specifically by name the countries on behalf of which damages and restitution of territory are to be asked.

AMERICAN MINISTER WILL BE REMOVED FROM BUCHAREST

By Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 5.—American Minister Popovitch will be taken away from Bucharest, as the German government asks, although he will still be the accredited American minister to Rumania, Serbia and Bulgaria. The German government has cited incidents in which it alleges he was unneutral toward the central powers and favored Rumania.

With the Dutch minister, Popovitch undertook protection of entente subjects when the German armies took the Rumanian capital.

CENTRAL POWERS PLAN NEW STATE

PRINCE MIRKO OF MONTENEGRO TO BE RULER OF SLAVONIC PROVINCE UNDER AUSTRO-HUNGARY.

By Associated Press.

Amsterdam, Jan. 5.—A dispatch from the Rheinische Westfälische Zeitung of Essen from Berlin states that negotiations are proceeding at Lucerne, Switzerland, between representatives of Austria-Hungary and Montenegro, Germany also being represented, with a view to the creation of a new south Slavonic state under Austro-Hungarian protection. Prince Mirko of Montenegro, it is added, will be the ruler of the new state.

Prince Mirko of Montenegro is the second son of King Nicholas and remained in Montenegro after its occupation by Hungarian troops. Prince Mirko married Princess Natalie of Serbia.

WIFE OF CARRANZA GENERAL BELIEVED BURNED TO DEATH

By Associated Press.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 5.—The mystery of the disappearance of Mrs. Francisco Gonzales de Rodriguez, wife of a Carranza general, during Villa's occupation of Chihuahua City, is believed here to have been solved in the finding of the charred body of a woman near Santa Eulalia, a suburb of Chihuahua, according to a report received here by government agents. The report adds Mrs. de Rodriguez was last seen in charge of a squad of Villa's soldiers who left with her in an automobile, taking with them a large can of kerosene. She was accused by Villa of intriguing in behalf of the Carranza forces.

GERMAN CONSUL IS HELD FOR RANSOM

REPORTS REACHING EL PASO CONFIRM RUMORS BANDITS ARE DETAINING TEUTON OFFICIAL.

Special to The News.

El Paso, Jan. 5.—Confirmation of the report that German Consul Vogel of Colima, Mex., was being held for ransom by bandits operating in that state was contained in a letter received here tonight by an American refugee from an American consul in southwestern Mexico.

Dr. C. H. Morrill, an American, was also being held for ransom by the bandits of Colima, the communication stated. Dr. Morrill is 84 years old and one of the wealthy residents of that state, the letter added. They were taken from their homes on December 20 and carried off to the mountains. This letter also confirmed reports of starvation and disease in the city of Guanajuato. Hundreds of poor workmen are dying there of typhus, smallpox and starvation, the consul said, and the death rate was so high that the lumber for making coffins had been exhausted.

POLICE BELIEVE MODEL MURDER MYSTERY SOLVED

EVIDENCE REVEALED THROUGH SUICIDE OF BERNARD LEWIS SATISFIES OFFICERS THAT HE WAS SLAYER OF MAIZIE COLBERT.

By Associated Press.

Philadelphia, Jan. 5.—That the mystery surrounding the murder of Maizie Colbert, the artists' model, here last Friday night, has been closed up by the accepted conclusion of the police tonight.

The suicide last night in Atlantic City of Bernard W. Lewis, son of a wealthy retired Pittsburgh coal operator, was cited by the authorities as the closing chapter in the tragedy which for the last week has stirred and mystified Philadelphia.

The investigation of the authorities has now narrowed down to the motive of the crime.

While the general belief of the police is that Lewis was temporarily embarrassed financially and may have been driven to strangle the young woman to secure funds, the supposition that his mind was temporarily unbalanced is also given credence.

A costly diamond ring belonging to the slain girl, the gift of another admirer who had been under surveillance here, is still missing. Some of the circumstances pointing to Lewis as the slayer as indicated by the police were:

"His possession of a blood-stained handkerchief; strands of hair clutched in the dead girl's hands matched that of Lewis; he wore a woman's silk undershirt said to be a duplicate of others found in Miss Colbert's room; his hands were scratched as though a struggle had preceded the crime; his shirt and collar were the same size as the blood-stained shirt and collar found in the girl's apartment; a curtain cord similar to one torn from her apartment was found among Lewis' effects; in a memorandum book in his pocket was a card bearing Miss Colbert's telephone number and he was identified by Elwood Powell as the man he had driven in a taxicab to Miss Colbert's apartment the night the murder is believed to have occurred."

CONSTANTINOPLE IS OUT OF RUSSIAN'S REACH AT PRESENT

Oklahoma Teacher Describes Storm That Kills Fifteen

By Associated Press.

McAlester, Okla., Jan. 5.—Lying on a cot in a hospital here today, Miss Vera Carter, teacher of the Vireton school, which was destroyed by a tornado in which fifteen school children lost their lives yesterday morning, related her experiences.

"I was hearing a primary class when the storm broke," said Miss Carter. "It had been raining but we hadn't thought much about it. Suddenly above the noise of the rain we could hear a different sound. I went to the door and looked out. I saw a big black cloud that was moving awfully fast. As I watched I saw pieces of timber flying in the air and I knew it was the Indian mission."

"Below the roar and rumble of the storm I could hear a peculiar hissing sound. Away to the south the sky was a ghastly green that colored everything with an unearthly glow. Up through the little valley in which the school house stood, twisted and turned the big black cloud. It rose and dipped as it moved. I grew dizzy with fright as I saw we were directly in its path and it was drawing nearer—rapidly nearer."

"I closed the door and placed my back against it. I still had my hand on the doorknob when the storm struck. I thought it was the end of everything—and then we were being twisted through the air and battered against pieces of flying timbers, with the wind roaring all about us. I can't describe that brief moment in the air. It was awful. I knew what was happening but I couldn't think. It seemed as if I was being drawn into

CARRANZA WILL NOT RECOGNIZE U. S. PROTOCOL

By Associated Press.

Queretaro, Mex., Jan. 5.—General Carranza tonight sent a message to the Mexican commissioners attending the Mexican-American conference informing them it was impossible for him to ratify the proposed protocol as it limited the conditions regarding the withdrawal of American troops from Mexico. He said that the clause dealing with this matter would have to be eliminated or amended, as it was not sufficiently clear and gave a chance of difficulties which might arise from the withdrawal of the troops or the suspension of their withdrawal.

The message says that only the immediate withdrawal of the American forces can be accepted and that as soon as their withdrawal is begun the final ratification of the protocol can be proceeded with. After verification of the retirement of the American soldiers the message concludes the Mexican commissioners can discuss other matters as specified in their credentials.

Believe America Will Be Involved.

"Let me say on my own authority," said Senator Lewis, "that I agree with the sentiment expressed from any quarter, the secretary of state or any one else, referring to Secretary Lansing's first examination of the president's note to the powers, that this cannot continue without America being involved in the conflict."

"Do you feel that the people of this nation are in such temper that they can ever again allow any commander of ships, any captain of army, any officer of diplomacy to visit upon this country an injury to a citizen or property and escape on an excuse of misconception of orders or zeal of an officer?"

By Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 5.—Approval of President Wilson's request for a statement of peace terms from the European belligerents was voted tonight by the senate at the conclusion of three days of stirring debate. Action came with dramatic suddenness when democratic leaders decided to accept a form of resolution that would not commit the senate to endorsement of the whole of the president's note and ten republicans of the progressive group joined the majority in making the vote 48 to 17.

Senator Martine of New Jersey was the only democrat to vote in the negative.

Discussion of the subject had reached a climax during the day with a sensational declaration by Senator Lewis, chief spokesman for the democrats, replying to republican criticism of the president's course. Without referring directly to the submarine controversy the senator said the United States could not keep out of the war if it continued, and that America would not again accept misconception of orders or zeal of an officer as an excuse for an injury to a citizen or property.

OBJECTIONS NOT CLEARLY DEFINED.

The chief objection urged against the original resolution offered by Senator Hitchcock was that it would endorse the president's offer to join in a movement to guarantee world peace and his declaration of the interest of the United States in small nations. Progressive republicans joined Senator Lodge and others in this contention.

The resolution adopted was proposed by Senator Jones, republican, of Washington, and was accepted by Senator Hitchcock as a substitute for his own. It resolves:

"That the senate approves and strongly endorses the request by the president in the diplomatic notes of December 18 to the nations now engaged in war that those nations state the terms upon which peace might be discussed."

The compromise ended debate when it appeared certain that action would be deferred until tomorrow and soon after Senator Borah had begun a vigorous speech against the original resolution. There had been startling assertions from both sides of the chamber during the day though none attracted such attention as that of Senator Lewis in closing the argument for the Hitchcock resolution.

BELIEVE AMERICA WILL BE INVOLVED.

"Let me say on my own authority," said Senator Lewis, "that I agree with the sentiment expressed from any quarter, the secretary of state or any one else, referring to Secretary Lansing's first examination of the president's note to the powers, that this cannot continue without America being involved in the conflict."

'SQUARE DEAL' EDITOR IS ON WAY BACK TO FEDERAL PRISON

By Associated Press.
Fort Worth, Jan. 5.—Unshackled, but accompanied by an assistant deputy warden from the Kansas state penitentiary at Lansing, Kan., Harry (Tex) Schapper, erstwhile safe blow, honor prisoner and editor of the prison newspaper "Square Deal," left Fort Worth Friday afternoon for Lansing, to finish his term in the penal institution.

Schapper carried with him a long letter addressed to Warden J. M. Coddling containing a plea for leniency and a confession of faith in the honor prisoner. The letter was signed by Mayor E. T. Tyra, Police Commissioner Hugh Jamieson, Police Chief Cullen Bailey, Detective Chief Thomas W. Jackson and Barney P. Finn, superintendent of the identification bureau. The letter tells Warden Coddling that Schapper surrendered to the Fort Worth detectives voluntarily and that he requested them to telegraph the warden apprising him of Schapper's presence in Fort Worth.

"He seemed worried that you had lost confidence in him," the letter said, "but he signified his perfect willingness to face the music."

"We, the undersigned, while not attempting to dictate your policies or what disposition shall be made in this case, desire to take advantage of this opportunity to speak a good word for Schapper and trust that after you have investigated fully his story you will see fit to restore him as editor of the 'Square Deal' and to the many privileges he has enjoyed during his stay in your institution."

Schapper will arrive in Lansing Saturday night.

To Avoid Dandruff

You do not want a slow treatment for itching scalp when hair is falling and the dandruff germ is killing the hair roots. Delay means—no hair. Get, at any drug store, a bottle of zemo for 25c or $1.00 for extra large size. Use as directed, for it does the work quickly. It kills the dandruff germ, nourishes the hair roots and immediately stops itching scalp. It is a pure, reliable, antiseptic liquid, is not greasy, is easy to use and will not stain. Soaps and shampoos are harmful, as they contain alkali. The best thing to use for scalp irritations is zemo, for it is safe and also inexpensive.

DOBRODJA NOW IN HANDS OF TEUTONS

CENTRAL POWERS CONTINUE TO ADVANCE—CAPTURE MANY PRISONERS.

By Associated Press.
The Rumanian province of Dobroджа now is in the hands of the central powers, whose armies continue to advance through great Wallachia into Moldavia.

Braila, an important commercial city in Great Wallachia on the west bank of the Danube below Galatz, has been captured by German and Bulgarian troops. Several villages on the outskirts of Braila also have been occupied and Field Marshal von Mackensen's troops have taken 1,400 prisoners in their latest success.

Virtually all of the river Danube from its source to its mouth now is in the hands of the Teuton forces. Advancing through the mountains in western Moldavia, the German troops have gained additional ground and have captured several hundred prisoners. Between Rimnik-Sarat and Pokoshani von Mackensen's men continue to progress and have occupied the towns of Slobozia and Botevici. The Russians and Rumanians, Petrograd announces, repulsed attacks at some points on the Moldavian front and near Toposchik and Norncha the Austro-Germans gained ground.

Premiers Lloyd George of Great Britain and Briand of France have arrived in Rome for a conference with the Italian ministry on the general situation. A representative of the Russian general staff also is expected to take part in the consultations.

Mexicans Ask U.S. for Arrest of Publisher

Brownsville, Jan. 5.—A party of Mexicans, claiming to be employees of the Carranza government, crossed the border here from Matamoros in an automobile tonight and requested Sheriff Vann to arrest and deliver them to the Russian agent, agent for a Spanish anti-Carranza magazine published in San Antonio, Texas. The request was refused.

The party, which is being closely watched, later unsuccessfully tried to induce a night watchman at the city market to arrest Gayon and turn him over to them.

Among the Mexicans, according to local authorities, is Juan Botello, representing himself as being connected with the Mexican customs service.

Cummins, former official of the Carnegie Trust company, recently pardoned by Governor Whitman of New York. The senate accepted the invitation unanimously. In the house the question was raised if such action was not "flaunting something in the face of New York."

The house, however, accepted the invitation. Cummins was very popular in Nashville before removing to New York.

WHITE STAR LINER GEORGIC, WHICH SAILED FROM PHILADELPHIA DECEMBER 3, IS BELIEVED LOST.

By Associated Press.

New York, Jan. 5.—The White Star line freighter Georgic, a vessel of 10,677 tons and one of the largest freighters in the world, now thirty-three days out from Philadelphia with a heavy cargo of war supplies for France and England, is officially classed as "missing" today in the maritime register. While the makeup of the Georgic's cargo, which was insured for $1,000,000, has not been made known, it is believed that she had explosives on board. She left Philadelphia December 3 for Brest, France, whence she was to have sailed for Liverpool.

Two other liners, the Cunarders Andania and Ausonia, both bound here from London, also are classed among the missing. The Andania left London December 14, the Ausonia December 16.

Among other vessels classed as missing are the British steamer Bayreuth, which left Cardiff, Wales, October 29 for Montreal; the British steamship Belgic, which left Liverpool November 25 for New York; the British steamship Bellerophon, which sailed from Southampton, Eng., November 25 for Halifax, and the Lamport and Holt liner Voltaire, which left Liverpool November 25 for this port.

The Belgian steamship Baron Baeyens, which left Brest December 8 and which was previously classed as missing, arrived yesterday. The British steamship Rokeby arrived from Cardiff after a twenty-nine days' passage, and the British steamship Wallace, which left Havre, December 3, also reached port yesterday.

FIVE WITNESSES GIVE TESTIMONY IN MURDER CASE

By Associated Press.
Olney, Ill., Jan. 5.—Taking of evidence in the state's case against Roy Hinterslter, on trial in connection with the death last July of Miss Elizabeth Ratcliffe, began late today when five witnesses were heard.

Mrs. Bert Fancher, the sister with whom Miss Ratcliffe lived, said on the night the girl died Hinterslter called for her in a buggy about 8 o'clock. At 11 o'clock she said she was awakened by Hinterslter who told her her sister was in the Olney sanitarium.

While going to the sanitarium Mrs. Fancher said Hinterslter repeatedly expressed the fear that people would believe that he had killed the girl. When she arrived at the hospital her sister was dead.

Earl Berry and Glenn Jones, chums of Hinterslter, told identical stories of going to Olney on the afternoon of July 21, of the visit of Hinterslter to a negro fortune teller, of the purchase of a surgical instrument and of spending the night in a cab at a livery stable. The defense has suggested that Berry and Jones were involved in the death of the girl.

Berry testified that on the morning of July 22 Hinterslter asked him to come to a lonely road into an old orchard to find a surgical instrument he believed was there and destroy it. He also was asked, he said, to hide a revolver, a slung shot and a bottle of acid which were in the defendant's buggy. From the opening story of the attorney for the defendant it became evident that Hinterslter likely would disregard his previous story of the night's events and admit the happenings in the orchard.

In a signed statement Hinterslter said he and the girl never left the buggy. His attorney said Hinterslter would tell of the events in the orchard which she herself tried to perform.

Kerrigan Old in Movie Game; to Be Seen Here

Starting in the "movie" game when it was a kid, J. Warren Kerrigan, who will appear in person at the Hippodrome Friday, appeared first in the short-reel pictures that were popular at that time. With ability, good appearance and good business judgment he stayed, but instead of merely "acting," he worked hard and soon his pictures became very popular. Devoting his attention to the little detail that had anything to do with part that he was to play, he fitted himself to the ranks of the big stars, that old adage, "Whatever is worth doing is worth doing well," seemed to have taken root in his memory; consequently he went to the top of his chosen profession and today counts his friends by the million.

POLAND ANXIOUSLY AWAITS FORMATION OF NEW KINGDOM

By Associated Press.
Berlin, Jan. 5.—Polish leaders interested in the formation of the new Polish kingdom, according to advices from Warsaw, are looking forward anxiously to the time for the proclamation of the king.

Pending this event the idea of a separate state is taking root slowly among the Poles but it is believed the report says that once the tangible concept of a crowned monarch is placed before them by the ceremonial incident to the entry of the king into Warsaw and to his crowning, the people will realize more vividly their national existence under a new form.

The first preliminary to the institution of the new order is the formation of the projected council of state as it is impracticable to go ahead with the election of a regent or king or till the adoption of a constitution. The organization representing the Polish people is in existence officially to express its wishes regarding the person of the regent or king or to approve the constitution.

Various difficulties incident to the organization of the council have been or are being overcome and the announcement of the formation of the council is expected within a few days. The council probably will be presided over by M. Lempiel, a former member of the duma and other members probably will be Prince Radziwill, Prince Czartoryski and Count Ronik.

SUFFRAGE LEADER CHARGES ELECTION WAS NOT SQUARE

By Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 5.—A charge that the suffrage cause had been "cheated" of five or perhaps more states by wilful fraud or fraud perpetrated within the law" was made by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Suffrage association, in an address, advocating more stringent corrupt practices laws, delivered tonight before the National Popular Government league.

"In twenty-five states," said Mrs. Catt, "no provision has been made by the election law for any form of contest or recount on a referendum. Political corruptors may in these states bribe voters, colonize voters and repeat them to their heart's content and redress of any kind is practically impossible."

ERISOPHANS WIN IN CONNALLY DEBATE AT BAYLOR LAST NIGHT

Representatives of the Erisophian literary society won first and second places in the annual Connally debate last night, winning the decision for the debate. L. L. Burkhalter won first place and J. D. Aldridge won second place. Both men were on the negative side of the question and represented the Erisophians. T. B. Thorne won fourth place and W. E. James won third place. The two were representatives of the "Philo" society.

After the decision had been rendered the victorious men were paid tribute by members of their society by yells and songs, some of the members seizing the "Sophie" representatives and parading around the hall with them on their shoulders.

The members of the society adjourned after the debate to the Baylor cafeteria, where a supper and songs were indulged. Speakers of the night were called on for short speeches. Lemuel Hall, yell leader for the society, acted as toastmaster for the occasion.

Judges for the contest were Rev. A. M. James of Dallas, Dr. J. C. Hardy, Belmont, Walton Petet, Senator A. R. McCollum and W. W. Woodson, Waco. The question for debate was, "Resolved, That the short ballot should be adopted in state elections in the United States." J. E. Boulet, F. E. Thorne and W. E. James represented the affirmative side of the question and H. C. Morrow, J. D. Aldridge and L. L. Burkhalter represented the negative.

Alleged Check Forger Released on $10,000 Bail at Toronto

By Associated Press.
St. Louis, Jan. 5.—A. P. Macauley of Toronto, who was arrested here two days ago on suspicion of being a well known check forger, was released on $10,000 bond today. He insisted that his arrest was a mistake.

Before Macauley was released Martin Baumann, a farmer living near Little Rock, Ark., but who said that two years ago he was a jeweler in Chicago, entered police headquarters and looking at Macauley said he was the same man who bought a watch from him for $185 on Christmas eve, 1914, giving in payment a counterfeit $200 travelers check on the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

Seven employees of two department stores had previously identified Macauley as the man who offered them $200 travelers checks on a Toronto bank.

Deputies will, in addition, be paid their traveling expenses, and on retirement get an annual pension equal to $40 for every year in which they sat in the chamber, up to a maximum of $800. Texas Guards Parade Streets Shouting, We Want to Go Home

MILUKOFF IS RUSS "MAN OF THE HOUR"

By Associated Press.
San Antonio, Jan. 5.—A report from Corpus Christi that 300 members of the Second Texas infantry had paraded the streets crying out, "We want to go home," resulted in an investigation being ordered. While the first unofficial reports from Corpus Christi declare the parade was merely a prank gotten up in a spirit of fun, a more serious aspect is put on the incident by department officers, who fear violation of discipline if nothing more.

It was reported that the provost guard rounded up the revellers and sent them to camp and later all members were ordered to quarters for the night.

No action will be taken until a full report is made by the commanding officers at Corpus Christi.

Trio Tries to Burn Officer

By Associated Press.
Chicago, Jan. 5.—A method of attack probably unknown in police history was used by three alleged automobile thieves when confronted by Detective Sergeant John Boschulte. The trio threw kerosene at the detective in an attempt to saturate his clothing, and being unable to close in with him owing to his pugilistic skill, gained in former years in the prize ring, threw lighted matches at him.

Boschulte cornered the men in a flat building and while they were unable to overpower him as he danced about he was in no position to overpower them.

In all the alleged thieves discharged the contents of five bottles of kerosene at him. Much of it splashed onto his clothing, then as opportunity offered, the trio lighted matches and circling about for an advantage endeavored to set him on fire. He was able, however, to ward them off with his hands and when reinforcements arrived the men were arrested.

TELLS OF ENORMOUS FUEL LOSS.

Lack of Power Plant Efficiency Is Blamed by a Mechanical Engineer. Conservation of fuel was one of the subjects most discussed at the annual convention of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers here. Victor J. Azbe, in a paper on "Power Plant Efficiency," estimated that $24 million dollars' worth of coal is wasted every year, besides the natural gas and crude oil.

"The same people who would painstakingly strive for an extra mile or two from a gallon of gasoline in the operation of their motor cars," he said, "are maintaining in their factories power plants that waste 30 per cent or more of the coal burned. Those responsible for this prodigality should consult specialists on economical power plant operation and design, and should obtain operators, educated to more efficient performance of their duties. I believe that from 10 to 20 per cent of the fuel consumption could be saved without additional investment, by more efficient operation."—New York Times.

COMPTROLLER TO STAND FIRM ON ROAD HOUSE LAW

APPLICATION TO OPERATE NORTH OF WACO DENIED AND WILL BE FOUGHT TO HIGHEST COURT IN STATE, SAYS TERRELL.

Declaring that he was threatened with mandamus proceedings if he did not renew a liquor license for a road house three miles north of Waco on the Dallas road, but that he would issue a license only when the grant of the courts had been run and the supreme court ordered him to issue it, State Comptroller H. B. Terrell was here yesterday from Austin.

Comptroller Terrell said that he had refused to renew the license of this road house precisely as he had refused to renew other road house licenses in Texas, because these places had become highly objectionable to residents of communities where they are established, and that as there is hardly any way of policing such places, much disorder results from them. He expressed the view that public sentiment of Texas, whether among private citizens or against the road houses, is against the road houses.

"Since the permit or license of the road house above Waco was revoked, the man who had been running the place has applied again and there have been three other applications for a license to sell there, but they will get it only at the end of the law," said Comptroller Terrell.

It is understood that there is a very strong probability that a road house or two in this county being put out of business in the same manner when the license expires, and that the comptroller will refuse to renew same.

Police Say "Dimmer" Ordinance Is Not Being Observed

That the "dimmer" ordinance is not being observed generally in the city, and also that there are quite a good many who are not paying any heed to the effort which was made to secure an "unwritten law" in the county on the line of dimming lights when two machines pass each other going in opposite directions, was the statement made yesterday by one of the Waco police.

Many accidents have been caused by glaring headlights which have blinded drivers of machines so they could not tell anything about how to turn or what to do on country roads and city streets. Efforts made by the city commission seemed to mitigate the blinding headlights proposition, it was stated, but some claim that there are not as many observing this precaution now as were observing it a few weeks ago.

Former Wacoan Visits Business Friends Here

Charles Hobson of Dallas, prominent street railway man, who was formerly a resident of Waco, was in Waco yesterday. Mr. Hobson established the first electric street railway in Waco, about the close of the '80s. Later he sold out to the old Waco Street Railway company.

Regarding changes in Waco, Mr. Hobson said yesterday that he came down just about often enough to be impressed by these changes, visiting Waco once probably each twelve months. Mr. Hobson was accompanied by his wife and daughter. They returned to Dallas yesterday afternoon.

Before leaving Waco Mr. Hobson was the guest of honor at a homecoming luncheon given by W. W. Seley as a courtesy to an old-time business associate. Present at the luncheon were W. W. Seley, Hart Moore, W. H. Jones, Lavin Fickett, Alvin D. Sanford, J. H. Quarles, Dr. I. L. McGlasson, Jack Ray and W. A. Poage. All these were old friends, and the time was spent in talking over the times when Mr. Hobson was a resident of Waco.

Machinery to Drill New Well Arrives

Machinery for drilling the big new artesian well at the plant of the Waco city waterworks has been shipped from San Antonio by Contractor J. P. Binkendorfer, according to information received by Secretary-Manager E. L. Fulkerson. It is hoped to see drilling under way in a short time.

Contractor Binkendorfer is the man who received the contract to drill the well, and it is hoped to get the well safely in and prepared for connecting up with the water system before the summer of 1917. It will be drilled about 600 feet from the one already in use at the plant on the west side of the river about the end of Vermont street.

CAMPAIGN IN BEHALF OF BAPTIST EDUCATION IS BEGUN WITH PRAYER DAY

Yesterday was a day of prayer in the Baptist churches of Waco, and in many other Baptist churches over the state, in connection with the launching of the campaign to raise in Texas $250,000 towards the $1,000,000 which is being raised for the schools of this denomination in the state.

Dr. Lee R. Scarborough of Fort Worth is leading the campaign. In some of the churches yesterday more than one service was held. At the First Baptist church three services were held. There was a devotional and song service, a talk by Rev. J. M. Dawson and short talks by a number of others.

A county-wide meeting will be held at the First Baptist church here in connection with the campaign, on January 9, and Dr. Scarborough and Dr. Gambrell are both expected in Waco at that time.

Pennsylvania Troops, Enroute Home, in Waco Last Night

Three trains bearing Pennsylvania troops of the national guard passed through Waco early last night over the M. & T. railroad, homeward bound after service on the Mexican border.

The first train reached Waco shortly after 7 o'clock, and the others followed at short intervals until all three had passed. Each train made a stop of thirty or forty minutes in Waco, allowing the men to get something to eat and to exercise. The trains then moved out to Fort Worth and on through St. Louis toward their destination.

There were in the three trains sixty-two officers, thirty-nine men and Pullmans, the total number of men reaching nearly 1,200.

Social Calendar for Today.

The Suffrage club meets at the public library, 2:30 o'clock.
Mr. and Mrs. James P. Alexander have dinner guests in their home, 7:30 p. m.

Majestic Vaudeville Party.

Mrs. Eli Marks was hostess for a box party at the Auditorium for Majestic vaudeville in compliment to Mrs. I. Friedlander of Houston, Misses Reva Herman of San Antonio and Minnie Ryman of Calvert. Other guests in the party were Mrs. S. J. Davidson, Misses Rose Friedlander, Bess Freeman, Hazel Davidson, Miss Marks and I. Friedlander. At conclusion a three-course luncheon was enjoyed at the Hotel Raleigh.

The Social Needlecraft.

The Social Needlecraft met with Mrs. Lee Bassett for their first meeting of the new year and the officers chosen at this time are Mrs. G. W. Green, president; Mrs. J. L. Martin, vice president; Mrs. Homer Aynesworth, secretary and treasurer, with Mrs. J. M. Jackson reporter. A two-course refreshment plate was the hospitality of the hostess, offered in rooms adorned with carnations. Mrs. J. O. Crawford was the only club guest. Mrs. M. E. Gregory is the next hostess for the Social Needlecraft.

Miss Katherine Reynolds Club Hostess.

Happy combination, found the Debutante Bridge club and the Bachelor Maids assembled on invitation, with one of their popular number, Miss Katherine Reynolds, who entertained them jointly in the home of her sister, Mrs. Dorothy McCutchan. Miss Morse was the Bachelor Maid who made the highest count, and Miss Edwina Sturgis the lucky scorer among the debutantes. Miss Dorothy Finley was the hostess. The social hour was a salad plate was passed at conclusion of the enjoyable game.

The Literary Club.

Not so large an attendance of the Literary club was in evidence at their meeting of this week with Mrs. J. N. Gallagher, but truly most enjoyable were the hours passed by those privileged this hospitality and Mrs. J. W. Downs' presentation of her assigned subject, "Influence of Hero Worship on Minds of Men Who Have Achieved Greatness." This was followed closely by a lively discussion, "How May a Woman Display Public Spirit and Influence Legislation, Yet Remain Womanly?" Mrs. W. E. Spell was the able leader of the discussion. Mrs. F. A. Winchell was the program director. The serving by Mrs. Gallagher of fruit cake and other good things of similar character were suggestive of the recent Christmas cheer.

Y. W. C. A. Notes.

The annual membership meeting of the Y. W. C. A. is to be on the evening of January 19 at 8 o'clock. There are six members on the board whose terms expire at that time. Are you a member of the association? If so, whom do you want on the board of directors? Suggestions from the members are desired.

Miss Mildred Corbett of Dallas, city secretary of the field staff of the Y. W. C. A., is to hold the vesper service at the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. She has a message that every girl wants to hear. Let all come and invite their friends.

The educational work of the Y. W. C. A. has begun and the outlook for the work is promising. The English class met last evening and the Spanish class the evening previous, as did the foreign speaking girls' class.

Lecture Enjoyed.

On Thursday afternoon the Woman's club presented Dr. James P. Royster of the State University's English faculty, at the public library rather than at the Huaco club, as announced. The library auditorium, made unusually attractive, through the efforts of Mrs. John Sleeper, Miss Grace Prather and others of the Woman's club, gave no evidence of the hurry and worry occasioned by the unexpected burning at midnight of the Huaco club, where the lecture was to have occurred. Guests to the number of 200 had been bidden for the afternoon's literary treat, and considering the sudden change in arrangement and downpour previous to the appointed hour, the response was splendid. Dr. J. A. Armstrong, in his usual felicity of manner, introduced the cultured speaker, who held his audience in wrapt attention throughout the lecture hour, the subject of which was "The Satire of Bernard Shaw," the great English writer and critic.

Worth Posing On.

Here are a dozen don'ts for daily duties, republished in The Gideon from American Education:

Don't argue with the inevitable. The only argument available with an east wind is to put on your overcoat.

Don't preach too much. None preaches better than the ant, and she says nothing.

Don't waste your feelings. Feelings are too rich cream to be skimmed for nothing.

Don't be too patient. "Once in a while," said Uncle Eben, "a man compliments himself on having patience when he's simply too lazy to make a move."

Don't pack up worries. You can get them anywhere as you go along.

Don't let your stream of life be a murmuring stream.

Don't use a pile driver to pin on a bow of ribbon.

Don't measure success by accumulation, for this measure is false.

Don't talk over "prevailing conditions." Just make friends with your luck.

Don't fail to love your neighbors, yet pull not down your hedge.

Don't kill yourself with unnecessary work. There was once a New England woman whose epitaph read, "She hath done what she couldn't."

Don't leave the sky out of your landscape.

By Associated Press.

Jassy, Rumania, Jan. 5.—In response to a unanimous vote of the chamber of deputies, the Rumanian government has ordered that "declarations of defiance" be placarded in every town. The declaration was read in the chamber of deputies by Deputy Jorga, and is in part as follows:

"To indulge at this moment in petty recriminations and personalities would be to fail to comprehend the great and tragic majesty of the time. This war will cause to arise here as elsewhere a new moral harvest in the soul of every one who aspires to serve the interests of the country. We see close at hand the grimacing spectre of the invader, greedy for the suffering of those whom he hopes to make his victims. But the rallying of our moral forces will show the world all the intelligence, energy and devotion that the nation posseses."

SENATOR BORAH STATES HIS VIEWS.

Senator Borah attacking the Hitch-ment that the United States by approving the president's note would bind itself in the future with European nations to protect the integrity and security of smaller European nations and that if this meant anything at all it meant that the army and navy of this nation must be at the disposal of any world combination the war's end might see to give this protection.

The Hitchcock resolution read as follows:
"That the senate approves and strongly endorses the action taken by the president in sending the diplomatic note of December 18 to the nations now engaged in war suggesting and recommending that those nations state the terms upon which peace might be discussed."

AMENDED RESOLUTION QUICKLY ACCEPTED.

"The resolution of the senator from Washington," said Senator Hitchcock rising suddenly, "if that would be acceptable to the senator from Idaho
I will accept it."

Senator Borah said he would not object to that resolution and when the necessary parliamentary procedure had been complied with voting began. The first test was the defeat, 36 to 27, of a resolution introduced earlier in the day by Senator Gallinger, the republican leader, after a conference of republicans. It would have the senate say:
"That the senate of the United States in the interest of humanity and civilization express the sincere hope that just and permanent peace between the warring nations of Europe may be consummated at an early date, and approves all proper efforts to secure that end."

GALLERIES FILLED WHEN VOTE IS TAKEN.

"The galleries were well filled when the vote on the Jones substitute began.

There was little excitement, for when progressive republicans began to line up behind it, it became apparent it would carry by a good majority.

Senator Borah's speech, which was abruptly ended by the agreement on the Jones substitute, was chiefly directed to warning the senate that the president's note in his opinion stipulated a new foreign policy for the United States which would mean repudiation of the Monroe Doctrine and his belief that adoption of the Hitchcock resolution would commit the senate to that policy.

PEACE TERMS MAKE LITTLE DIFFERENCE.

Speaking of Senator Lodge's reference to published reports that President Wilson had Germany's peace terms, Senator Lewis said this was only hearsay and if true made no difference, but merely had been used by Senator Lodge so that the country at large would feel that the peace proposal was made at the instance of Germany.

"Never did the senator from Massachusetts do a more artful piece of work," he added. "I am not for Germany nor the allies; I am for America."

"Will anybody say that we have no interest in the terms of peace?" asked Senator Lewis later. "When we contemplate the aspect of the possibility of our possessions passing into the hands of one or the other of the belligerents; when we consider that the Philippines may be in jeopardy at any time; that Hawaii may be threatened and that we may be embarrassed in Alaska?"

NO ATTEMPT ON MONROE DOCTRINE.

The Illinois senator declared that there was nothing in the president's note to warrant the effort of Senator Lodge to have the country understand that it implied acquiescence in a plan to join a league to enforce peace and a threat to destroy the Monroe doctrine.

"In every word of the message," he said, "the Monroe doctrine is not only guaranteed, but our outside policy is preserved and every theory of the American government secured. There is nothing in the message that gives the senator or any other man justification for the theories expressed by the opposition."

Senator Borah, declaring that he wanted peace and hated to stand against the president in a movement for it, opposed the Hitchcock resolution and an amendment of a policy meaning war, not peace.

"I have no desire to criticize the president's action in sending the note," said the Idaho senator. "If this mat-

President Wilson's note. It is the belief of the New York Times that Count von Bernstorff stands quite alone in this country in his view that Germany's note should be regarded "as constituting an acceptance of everything suggested by President Wilson in his note to the belligerent nations of Europe." On the other hand the New-Yorker Staats-Zeitung affirms that Berlin's reply marks "a further step on the right road," and that "Germany has taken up her position completely on the same ground as President Wilson" in planning for the prevention of future wars.

The Allies say they want restitution, reparation and guarantees of future security. Germany's reply to the President's note states a desire for "an immediate meeting of delegates" before terms are disclosed. This injects a new point of friction. Shall the delegates meet first, or terms be stated first? Is Germany sincerely working for peace, or cleverly avoiding the President's request?

DISCUSSION OF OPENING SEVENTH STREET TO BE HELD MONDAY AFTERNOON

In an effort to initiate a movement to open Seventh street from Austin to Washington street, a meeting has been called for Monday in Mayor John Dolins' office at the city hall, the meeting to be held at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The meeting was arranged by Chairman D. E. Hirschfield of the street opening committee of the Y. M. B. L. and this committee will meet with the committee from the city commission which was named recently. It is especially urged that property owners on Austin, Washington, Franklin and Columbus streets, who would be affected by the opening of the street, attend the meeting. It is stated that co-operation of all interested adjacent property owners is very essential to the successful outcome of the movement.

The Y. M. B. L. committee is composed of Chairman D. E. Hirschfield, J. W. Carlin, George Robinson, E. A. Miller and Dr. C. P. Schenck; the city commission committee is composed of Street Commissioner J. F. Stamp and Finance Commissioner J. D. Harlow.

upper River driveway, about 9 o'clock last night, a heavy touring car crashed into a tree, damaging the car but not injuring the occupants.

In the machine were J. H. Dweneger of Dallas, traveling sales agent of an automobile company; T. G. Bonana and D. Y. Craddock of Waco, auto men. Mr. Dweneger was driving, and when he saw the other car appearing suddenly in the converging roadway he turned his car to avoid a collision, striking a tree in the driveway.

A spring was broken on the front of the car which hit the tree, and the front axle was broken. The city patrol was sent to the spot, where parties telephoned about the accident, as it was thought that help might be needed, but Night Chief Charley James found that no one had been hurt.

Plans for Bettering Dairy Conditions to Be Discussed Today

Further discussion of the plans for bettering the conditions surrounding the dairying business and for getting better dairy cattle will take place at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock. W. W. Woodson is chairman of this committee.

Arrangements of a practical kind have been made for bringing in dairy cattle and allowing them to be taken by different parties in this county, the cattle to be purchased in larger numbers and thus secured at a lower price, farmers and dairymen to get them at cost, plus the freight. Full details of this plan are being worked out. The work which is being done promises to bring great results in bringing this section forward in the matter of dairying.

Working Boys to Have Special Program at Meeting Tomorrow

Members of the Working Boys' Sunday school will have a special program tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, to be given as another feature of the "Go to Church" movement that has been inaugurated by the pastors of Waco churches. Miss Nola Payne and Marie Weathers will sing solos, accompanied on the piano by Miss Maude Sharpe.

After the program and the Sunday school lesson has been completed refreshments will be served members of the school.

Reasons Are Given for "Go to Church" Day

The general secretary of the Young Men's Christian association makes a statement or two which answers the question which has been circulated throughout the city, as to why there should be a special "Go to Church" Sunday.

"There is nothing in the world to mankind and civilization as important as the church. A man needs the church and the Sabbath, as there is nothing as important as worship on this day."

"The church within itself is the soul and life of civilization and without the church culture and high ideals would receive a considerable decline. Then it is the duty of every citizen to attend church as much as possible. The pastors of Waco decided on the first Sunday in the year as a special Sunday in an effort to centralize the spirit of attending church. Many will attend Sunday who will not attend regularly throughout the year, but with all this, a start will have been made towards the right."

-Baylor Notes-

Dr. J. L. Royster, joint head of the English department at the State university, was a visitor at Baylor yesterday, and made two addresses, one to the student body at chapel on Alfred Noyes, another to the advanced classes in English on contemporary and modern drama.

In view of the fact that Alfred Noyes will be at Baylor Friday night to read some of his own poems, the lecture on this man and his work was interesting and will be of benefit to those who will hear the great English poet Friday.

In speaking of Alfred Noyes, Dr. Royster spoke of a subject with which he was entirely familiar. In comparing the poet Dr. Royster spoke of him as far above Kipling, though similar to him in writing on subjects of human interest.

A reference was made to Noyes' masterpiece, "Drake," which is a work of twelve volumes completed in two years. The college professor expressed amazement that the poet was able to produce so great a poem in so short a time with the live interest which the poem has. The statement was made that the entire work has not a lagging stanza but is as interesting as any of the modern novels.

"Few men have such a broad view of the many vocations that make up life, as has Alfred Noyes," said Dr. Royster. "Considering the fact that Mr. Noyes had not traveled outside of England before he produced 'Drake' many of the critics brand this work as an amazing achievement."

Dr. Royster read one of Mr. Noyes' poems, "The Highwayman," and the human interest and descriptive language of the poem appealed to the students and visitors who were present.

All students who failed in the fall term examinations will be given another opportunity to take a second examination this morning and afternoon, according to information from the dean.

Prof. Hawkins, German instructor at Baylor, has a German class with thirteen enrolled. One of the young men, a member of the class, wants the class to draw straws to see who is to resign, as he declares that the "thirteen" spells "unlucky" and may mean a flunk for more than one of the class.

Tonight Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Claypool will be at home for visitors, was the announcement at the close of chapel yesterday morning which received an uproar of applause. This means a soiree and the students will have the time of their life.

Hippodrome Presents "The Foolish Virgin"

The late announcement that Clara Kimball Young will be seen at the Hippodrome in "The Foolish Virgin" three days, starting tomorrow, is due to the fact that a theatre in one of the larger cities was showing the film and applied to the Selznick Pictures corporation for an extension of the engagement. This could not be granted without the consent of the management of the Hippodrome theatre here. During the negotiations the usual advertising campaign that accompanies big pictures of this kind was necessarily held up and not until yesterday was the Hulsey theatre here notified that their claim, for the days sought by the other theatre, sustained.

Clara Kimball Young is one of the most popular artists appearing on the screen and her pictures are always in big demand, whenever and wherever she appears a large crowd of movie fans may be found. Her particular style of beauty, her glorious eyes and her wonderful ability to live the parts that are assigned to her, as well as her genteel, wholly pleasing manner have made her one of the foremost drawing cards in picturedom.

Patrolman Finds 100 Autos Without Tail Lights Last Night

In a tour of investigation, to see how the laws regarding lights on autos are being observed, Police Officer H. S. Head said last night that in an hour and twenty minutes of nocturnal search he found 100 cars which had no tail lights, and that many of these machines did not even have front lights.

"There is a state law regarding lights on autos, as well as a city ordinance covering this, and the people who are disobeying this provision should get wise and learn of it," said Officer Head.

WHILE THE YEAR IS YOUNG.

When casting about for New Year's resolutions it is always well to take account of one's material well being. The virtue of saving is none too prevalent. It is not a forgotten art, but rather one that has never been cultivated by the American masses.

When reduced to statistics the lack of thrift is somewhat startling. Here are a few pungent paragraphs from the record book:

Out of every one hundred persons, sixty-six die penniless.
Of the 24 per cent who do save, 25 never accumulate more than $1,300 in their lifetime.

Ninety-seven out of every 100 who reach the age of 65 are from that time on part or wholly dependent upon friends, relatives or some charitable institution.

It is not out of place to talk of saving when the cost of living is as high as it is now. Much of the suffering that has resulted from the unusual conditions could have been prevented if thrift had been practiced a year ago. The year 1917 is going to test out the resourcefulness of the American people. A good way to begin is by organized saving.

Arizona has both a de jure and a de facto governor. The Mexican type of salaria seems to be contagious.

The champion pig raiser in Minnesota is a woman. Under existing conditions, that seems to be more profitable than raising babies.

The legislature should beware of every scheme for reform of court procedure which begins and ends with an increase of the number of courts.

Texas chickens raised a stir at the late Madison Square Garden poultry show. It might improve Wall Street manners to study the barnyard manners of those visitors.

A prohibition house ought to have enough sand in its craw to elect a speaker who believes that the people of Texas have a right to submission when they vote for it.

A San Antonio brewery was auctioned off under the hammer for $557,000, and yet a live artisan well can be brought in there for less than $25,000. Even value is a matter of taste.

Whole meat has appeared in California fish markets, but the price is 15c a pound. At that rate, one leviathan would be about equal in value to the par value of a California town addition in boom times.

THE PEACE PROPOSAL "LEAK."

The scandal of the peace proposal "leak," whereby certain officials are said to have profited by advance speculation in Wall Street, touches the very honor of the administration. It cannot afford to rest till this matter has been run to earth, the truth declared and the guilty punished for what amounts to a crime against the public.

Thomas W. Lawson, well known operator, openly declares that there was a "leak" by virtue of which he and other favored ones profited greatly. They knew the president's proposal was coming; they knew the sure effect would be a heavy decline on the market; and they traded on that knowledge, in precisely the same way that the manipulator of the shells trades on the knowledge of which one the pea is under. The whole affair was in the same category as marked cards, loaded dice and other devices of the "sure thing" gambler.

"Rigging the market" on exclusive information from Washington is no new thing, but it is long since anything so barefaced as this has been perpetrated. The president could readily have prevented any leakage of information, if he had selected his confidants with discretion. He made the proposal on his own motion and of his own authority. It was entirely within his power to keep it secret until the moment came for dispatching it. Having failed to do so, he should lose no time for his own sake in exposing and punishing those of his official family who may be found responsible.—Minneapolis Journal.

Marlin, Jan. 5.—The compulsory attendance law is now in effect in the rural schools of Falls county and each of the principals of these schools have been furnished a list of all children within the scholastic age in their district by County Attendance Officer Turner. No difficulty, it is thought, will be experienced in enforcing this law in the schools of the county as but few violations have been reported and in each case the law was immediately complied with when attention was called to the existence of this law.

The Parochial schools, conducted by the Sisters of Divine Providence, have shown a steady increase in attendance since their inauguration here, having last year outgrown its quarters and additional room was secured in their occupancy of the old church building as a school room.

At that time it was found that it was necessary to add another teacher to give satisfactory service. This year the growth has continued and today another teacher was added to the corps, making a total of five teachers. The enrollment is above the one hundred mark and the school is progressing satisfactorily to Sister M. Melanie, who is in charge of the work.

The Woodmen of the World of the city enjoyed an oyster feast last night at their lodge rooms, and a meeting for the purpose of instilling interest in the new year right, ended by the initiation of ten new applicants into the mysteries of Woodcraft was the feature that drew a record attendance. The local lodge has shown a steady growth and it is the intention of the officers of the lodge to make a majority of the membership to make 1917 a banner year in the progress of the local lodge.

CARS REPORTED STOLEN
NOW NUMBER FOURTEEN
ACCORDING TO OFFICERS

With the range of operations of C. E. Bailey, the man who was arrested Thursday on charges of alleged auto thefts, still widening, according to police officers last night, the number of cars taken had crept up to fourteen. Officers say that one of the missing cars was one taken last summer from Fire Marshal J. A. Carlisle of Waco, also one taken from in front of the Cotton Palace in 1915.

Officer F. A. Craven said last night that he believed most of these would be recovered while one or two of them already have been returned to owners. Twelve of the cars, according to the police, were taken from points in Texas and two in Oklahoma, while investigations now are being made of operations of like character supposed to have been carried on in Georgia, Mississippi, Arkansas and Louisiana, and possibly in California.

Chief of Police Guy McNamara and Officers Craven and Brandon worked on the case again yesterday, following their arrest of Bailey Thursday, and said last night that they were surprised over developments. Officer Craven said that he believed they would be able to recover twelve machines taken from parties in Texas alone, a part of these already having been recovered.

R. U. Frazier of Patterson, near Houston, came in yesterday, on the train and recovered his car. He was accompanied by V. E. Remus of Brookshire and A. J. Jordan, sheriff at Brookshire. They went back in the Frazier car.

Earners' Club Will Attend Church in Body Tomorrow

Members of the Earners' club will observe "Go-to-Church Sunday" tomorrow by attending Austin Avenue Methodist church in a body. The members will assemble at the Young Men's Christian association at 10:20 o'clock a. m., where a group picture will be taken, after which they will march to the church where special seats have been reserved for them. Every member is urged to be present tomorrow at the appointed time and be in the group picture.

Here and There

Work began yesterday on two new cottages in the Coates addition. Owners of the addition said that if conditions justify other cottages will be erected soon.

It has been stated that some of the additions around the city intended to do some building in the spring, but it seems that the movement is not going to wait for spring. This addition is located north of Colcord avenue and west of North Eighteenth street, bounded on the north by Trice avenue. This tract is said to indicate a revival in the building of cottages in several of the additions to Waco, especially as others have indicated their intention of putting additions in the same manner.

Indicating the interest that is being taken in holding in the near-business property west of Eighth street, an offer of $400 per front foot has been rejected for business lots on the north side of Austin street just east of where Tenth street would be if open, according to F. E. McLarty, one of the owners of this property.

Mr. McLarty said yesterday that a bona fide offer had been made of $400 per foot, but that this was considered too little for the property. It is believed by many that next spring will see quite a movement in real estate, both in the business and residence areas.

A number of autos from other towns near Waco were seen on the streets yesterday. Lack of dust and enticing weather conditions caused many to pay Waco a visit.

Farmers who were in Waco yesterday reported that they had had showers which would aid grain somewhat, but that not enough rain had fallen to sustain the grain for any length of time. They are hoping to see more rain before the situation becomes critical.

Officers for the new year were installed at a regular monthly business meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Austin Avenue Methodist church, held yesterday afternoon. Yearly reports of the standing committees were heard and accepted and quite a deal of routine business was disposed of.

Placards are to be seen at many points in the city, suggesting that residents, strangers and others go to church Sunday, and make a good start on the new year. This is part of the "Go to Church" movement inaugurated all over the country, and the placards are up by the Waco Pastors' association.

Visitor Goes for Auto Ride With Stranger;
Loses $90 Bankroll

J. Brock, resident of the Corbell ranch near China Springs, saved a summer's earnings and came to Waco during the holiday week to spend a few days' vacation.

While sauntering about on the principal streets, Brock met an affable stranger who offered to take him to where he could meet the owner of the Corbell ranch.

To do the job right the stranger hired a taxicab and they went for a ride across the river. When Brock was returned he was minus $90, his entire bank roll.

Yesterday Deputy Sheriff Lee Jenkins and Joe Robinson took Brown Brooks into custody and are holding him pending further investigation. Both Brock and the driver of the automobile, H. C. Carr, have identified Brooks as the man who took Brock for a ride.

Negro Has No Use for Medicine Case; Makes
Exchange for Meals

A medicine case and a set of surgical tools proved of little benefit to one Will Hunt, negro, so he traded them for a couple of meals at a North Sixth street restaurant. The case belonged to Dr. L. S. Downs and he notified the county constable's office a week after he missed it.

The same day the officers were notified the satchel was recovered, and yesterday Hunt was arrested in Taylor. Constable Leslie Stegall and Deputy Hobbs recovered the grip. Stegall left yesterday to bring Hunt to Waco. A charge of theft over $50 will be filed, according to court house officials.
